

Stenogomphus rogersi* Gloyd

Sable Clubtail

**?? - ??

Very Rare – S1

48 mm (1.9 in.)

Small

MALE: Eyes: bright green. Face: 2 black cross stripes. Thorax: light gray-green, heavily striped w/ black. Abdomen: black w/ middorsal small spear-shaped pale green markings; no club. Legs: long/thin. Wings: tips smoky. Stigmas: brown.

NWM 293.

FEMALE Body: ground color greenish-yellow, less black.

Habitat: Small spring-fed streams w/ sand, gravel, or silt substrate. NJ: rocky streams w/ some silt below impoundment. Stream exposed to sun w/ Spagnum floating leaves (RO). Stream clear/free flowing (Del). Prefers shade.

Reproduction: M patrol slowly 1-2' above water. F oviposit alone, dropping eggs into mid-stream clumps of grasses or sedges. Exuviae on stream banks in vegetation near edge of water; emerge early to mid-morning.

Locations: Patapsco River.

Phenograms (pages 2 – 6).

Locations (in Howard County)

Identification features and odonate anatomy